MEMORANDUM FOR DIRECTOR, CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

SUBJECT: Ad Hoc Satellite Requirements Committee

1. In a memorandum to the Secretary of the Air Force dated 28 February 1958, Director, Advanced Research Project Agency, confirmed the Air Force responsibility for the 117L Advanced Reconnaissance System.

2. In order to insure that intelligence requirements of all agencies are considered in the employment of this reconnaissance vehicle, an Ad Hoc Satellite Intelligence Requirements Committee has been established. This Committee will also consider problems associated with exploitation of results so as to insure that each agency is fully knowledgeable of various equipment, techniques and procedures.

3. The Collection Operations Division, AGO/Intelligence, HQ USAF, is the project office for this Ad Hoc Satellite Requirements Committee. Colonel James H. Macia, Jr., Deputy Chief, Collection Operations Division, has been designated as Committee Chairman.

4. Your agency is invited to participate in the activities of this Committee. If you desire to participate, please advise Colonel Macia the name, address and telephone number of the member and alternate you appoint as your representative.
